In compliance with Article 106 of Italian Legislative Decree No. 18/2020, converted by Law No. 27/2020 as further amended and extended (hereinafter the “Decree”), Banca Generali S.p.A. decided to avail itself of the possibility to establish that attendance in the Shareholders' Meeting takes place exclusively through the Appointed Representative, pursuant to Article 135-undecies of Legislative Decree No. 58 of 24 February 1998 (“TUF”), with no Shareholders attending in person.

The guidelines on the holding of the Shareholders' Meeting may be supplemented, amended and communicated appropriately in advance, in the same manner as used to publish the notice of calling.

The Appointed Representative could also be granted proxies or sub-proxies pursuant to Article 135-novies of TUF, in derogation from Article 135-undecies, paragraph 4, of the said Decree, in order to ensure the widest use of such remote voting system by all Shareholders.

Accordingly, in light of the above, (i) members of company bodies and all parties in charge of managing the meeting proceedings may connect to and participate in the Shareholders' Meeting by audio-conference, whereas (ii) shareholders may attend the Shareholders' Meeting through a passive streaming platform that may be accessed, after identification is provided, in the manner and according to the instructions that will be duly reported on the Company's website at the address <https://www.bancagenerali.com/>, section Governance/Attending the AGM.

Information on the Share Capital and Voting Rights

Banca Generali S.p.A.'s subscribed and paid-up share capital amounts to 116,851,637.00 euros, represented by a total of 116,851,637 ordinary shares with no par value. Each share, with the exception of treasury shares, entitles its owner to one vote in ordinary and extraordinary Shareholders' Meetings. As of the date of publication this notice of calling (i.e. 8 March 2024), the Company holds 2,920,001 ordinary treasury shares with no voting rights, pursuant to Article 2357-ter of the Italian Civil Code, equal to 2.50% of the share capital; therefore, the total number of voting rights that may be exercised at the Shareholders' Meeting hereby convened is 113,931,636.

Attendance of the General Meeting

Pursuant to Article 10 of the Articles of Association, entitlement to attend and exercise voting rights at Shareholders' Meetings, exclusively through the Appointed Representative, is established pursuant to a notice to be served to the Company by an authorised intermediary who keeps the accounts on which Banca Generali's shares are registered in favour of the party with voting rights, based on the latter's accounting records at the end of the record date, of the seventh trading day preceding the scheduled date of the Shareholders' Meeting at first calling (i.e. 9 April 2024, so called "record date"). Credit and debit entries made after said deadline shall not be taken into consideration for the intents and purposes of establishing entitlement to vote at the Shareholders' Meeting, therefore persons and parties shown as the owners of shares of the Company only following such date (i.e., after 9 April 2024) shall not be entitled to attend or vote at the Shareholders' Meeting through the Appointed Representative. The aforesaid notice from the intermediary must reach the Company by the end of the third trading day preceding the scheduled date of the Shareholders' Meeting at first calling (i.e. 15 April 2024). This is without prejudice to entitlement to attend and exercise voting rights exclusively through the Appointed Representative in the event the said notice reaches the Company after said deadline but before commencement of the proceedings of the Shareholders' Meeting referred to in the individual Notice of Calling.

No provision has been made for the casting of votes by mail or using electronic means. Those entitled to vote and/or their proxy holders may cast their vote through the Appointed Representative pursuant to Articles 135-undecies and 135-novies of TUF.

No additional items may be placed on the Agenda in respect of matters regarding which, under law, the Shareholders' Meeting may pass resolutions only at the motion of the Directors or on the basis of a project or report prepared by the latter and falling outside the scope of Article 125-ter, paragraph 1, of TUF.

Appointment of the Board of Directors

With respect to the appointment of the Board of Directors, which shall take place on the basis of lists of candidates, reference is made to the provisions of Article 147-ter of TUF and Article 15 of the Articles of Association. In any event, it should be noted that:

- entitlement to submit lists: only Shareholders who, separately or jointly with other Shareholders, represent at least 1.00% of capital with voting rights in ordinary Shareholders' Meetings are entitled to submit one list.

Each Shareholder, as well as (i) Shareholders belonging to the same group, the latter term being defined to include the party, which need not necessarily be a corporation, exercising control within the meaning of Article 2359 of the Civil Code, and each subsidiary controlled by, or under the common control of the said party, or (ii) Shareholders who have entered into the same shareholders' agreement within the meaning of Article 122 of TUF, or (iii) Shareholders who are otherwise associated with each other by virtue of associative relationships contemplated under the applicable statutory and/or regulatory framework, may submit, either on their own or jointly with other Shareholders, directly or through third party intermediaries, or trust companies, a single list of candidates, on pain of disqualification of the list;

Certifications from authorised brokers attesting to the collective ownership interest held as at the date of filing of the list may be delivered to the Company by 28 March 2024.

Shareholders who intend to submit lists for the appointment of the Board of Directors are required to comply with the recommendations made by Consob in its Communication No. DEM/9017893 of 26 February 2009, to which the reader is referred. In this regard, it should be noted that lists submitted by shareholders who, separately or collectively, do not hold a controlling or majority interest must be accompanied by a declaration that there are no associative relationships in respect of such shareholders pursuant to Article 147-ter, paragraph 3, of TUF and Article 144-quinquies of Consob Regulation No. 11971/1999, also considering the cases specified in the above Consob Communication No. DEM/9017893.

In presenting lists, Shareholders are invited to duly take account of the indications provided in the document "Recommendations on the Optimal Qualitative and Quantitative Composition of the Board of Directors", which contains the result of the analysis conducted by Banca Generali's Board of Directors of its own optimal qualitative and quantitative composition. This document, approved by the Board of Directors on 22 February 2024, has been published on the Company's website at the address <https://www.bancagenerali.com/en/governance/agm>.

For further information regarding the submission, filing, publication and voting of lists, as well as the requirements for the composition of the Board of Directors, reference is made to Article 15 of the Articles of Association and the Report by the Board of Directors on this point on the Agenda, available from the Company's website at <https://www.bancagenerali.com/en/governance/agm> in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in applicable legislation.

Appointment of the Board of Statutory Auditors

With respect to the appointment of the Board of Statutory Auditors, which shall take place on the basis of lists submitted by the shareholders, reference is made to the provisions of Article 148 of TUF and Article 20 of the Articles of Association. In any event, it should be noted that:

- entitlement to submit lists: only Shareholders who, separately or jointly with other Shareholders, represent at least 1.00% of capital with voting rights in ordinary Shareholders' Meetings are entitled to submit one list.

Each Shareholder, as well as (i) Shareholders belonging to the same group, the latter term being defined to include the party, which need not necessarily be a corporation, exercising control within the meaning of Article 2359 of the Italian Civil Code, and each subsidiary controlled by, or under the common control of, the said party, or (ii) Shareholders who have entered into the same shareholders' agreement within the meaning of Article 122 of TUF, or (iii) Shareholders who are otherwise associated with each other by virtue of associative relationships contemplated under the applicable statutory and/or regulatory framework, may submit, either on their own or jointly with other Shareholders, directly or through third party intermediaries, or trust companies, a single list of candidates, on pain of disqualification of the list;

- procedures for submitting the lists: the lists are made up of two sections, one for the appointment of the Acting Auditors and the other for the appointment of the Alternate Auditors. The lists contain a number of candidates no higher than the number of members to be elected, listed by progressive number. Each of the two sections of the list, except those containing less than three candidates, shall be drawn up in a manner that ensures the gender balance, in compliance with the applicable regulations in force. Each candidate may appear on only one list, upon penalty of ineligibility.

Lists must be submitted with information concerning the shareholders submitting them, along with an indication of the overall percentage of share capital held by said shareholders, and accompanied by the documents set forth in Article 20 of the Articles of Association. Lists for the appointment of the Board of Statutory Auditors may be filed by delivering them to the Company's registered office in Trieste at Via Machiavelli 4, for the attention of the Head of General Counsel & Sustainability Department, or, alternatively, to the certified electronic mail address corporate@pec.bancagenerali.it;

- deadlines for filing lists: lists, signed by the shareholders with standing, accompanied by the documentation required by the Articles of Association, must be filed within the 25th day prior to that of the scheduled date of the shareholders' meeting in first call, i.e. by 24 March 2024: in this case, although the deadline for filing lists of candidates for the office of member of the Board of Statutory Auditor falls on a holiday, this deadline is not postponed until the next business day in order to avoid reducing the possible additional period in the eventuality discussed below pursuant to Article 144-sexies, paragraph 5, of Consob Regulation No. 11971/1999. Certifications from authorised brokers attesting to the collective ownership interest held as at the date of filing of the list may be delivered to the Company by 28 March 2024.

If at the above deadline no list has been filed, or only a single list has been filed or lists have only been filed by shareholders related to one another pursuant to Article 144-quinquies of Consob Regulation No. 11971/1999, the deadline for submitting lists shall be extended by an additional three days, and lists may therefore be submitted by 27 March 2024. In this case, the percentage interest required to submit a list shall be reduced by half to 0.50% of capital with voting rights in ordinary Shareholders' Meetings. For organisational purposes, Shareholders are required to submit their lists of candidates within and no later than 18:00 hours of the deadline of 27 March 2024.

Shareholders who intend to submit lists for the appointment of the Board of Statutory Auditors are required to comply with the recommendations made by Consob in its Communication No. DEM/9017893 of 26 February 2009, to which the reader is referred. In this regard, it should be noted that lists submitted by shareholders who, separately or collectively, do not hold a controlling or majority interest must be accompanied by a declaration that there are no relationships of association in respect of such shareholders pursuant to Article 147-ter, paragraph 3, of TUF and Article 144-quinquies of Consob Regulation No. 11971/1999, also considering the cases specified in the above Consob Communication No. DEM/9017893.

In presenting lists, Shareholders are invited to duly take account of the indications provided in the document “Recommendations on the Optimal Qualitative and Quantitative Composition of the Board of Statutory Auditors”, which contains the result of the analysis conducted by Banca Generali’s Board of Statutory Auditors of its own optimal qualitative and quantitative composition. This document, approved by the Board of Statutory Auditors on 19 February 2024, has been published on the Company’s website at the address <https://www.bancagenerali.com/en/governance/agm>.

For further information regarding the submission, filing, publication and voting of lists, as well as the requirements for the composition of the Board of Statutory Auditors, reference is made to Article 20 of the Articles of Association and to the Directors’ Report on this item on the Agenda, available from the Company’s website <https://www.bancagenerali.com/en/governance/agm>, in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in applicable legislation.
