with Intesa Sanpaolo S.p.A. of the sum pledged to the payment of the consideration for the remaining 1,339,086 Shares (excluding the Treasury Shares), equal to 4.146% of the Issuer's share capital (the "Residual Shares").

As such, pursuant to art. 111, paragraph 3 of the TUF, upon the communication that the deposit has been made, the transfer of title to the Residual Shares to the Offeror has become effective and, as a consequence, the Issuer will proceed with making the necessary entries on its register of shareholders.

The holders of the Residual Shares will be able to obtain payment of the consideration relating to the Joint Procedure – equal to Euro 3.04 for each Residual Share - directly from their respective intermediaries. The obligation to pay the consideration relating to the Joint Procedure will be satisfied upon the transfer of the relevant amounts to the intermediaries from which the Residual Shares subject of the Joint Procedure originate.

Holders of the Residual Shares will bear the risk that the Depository Intermediaries do not transfer such amounts or that such transfer is delayed.

It should be recalled that - after the expiration of the five-year limitation period set forth in Article 2949 of the Civil Code and subject to the provisions of Articles 2941 et seq. of the Civil Code - the right of the holders of the Residual Shares to obtain payment of the consideration under the Joint Procedure will extinguish by prescription, and the Offeror will be entitled to the return of the portion of the Aggregate Consideration not collected by those entitled to receive it.
