Publication of additional interim financial information

Milan, 20 December 2016 – In accordance with the development of the legal framework of reference and in line with its stakeholders' needs, Banca Generali announces its decision to continue to provide its quarterly financial disclosures to the public by drawing up the interim report.

As planned, the interim report will be approved by the Board of Directors and published on the corporate website (www.bancagenerali.com) within the terms set forth in Banca Generali's 2017 financial calendar. The calendar will be disclosed in accordance with the terms provided for under applicable laws and made available on the corporate website (<http://www.bancagenerali.com/site/en/home/investor-relations/financial-calendar.html>).

This is to further announce that the conference calls with journalists and analysts will also continue to be held.
